

WWGA Website Announcements BLOG

Did you know that the Announcements part of the WWGA website (www.thewwga.org) is a BLOG? So, what is a BLOG? A BLOG is “a regularly updated website or web page, typically one run by an individual or small group, that is written in an informal or conversational style.” In our case the posts are from members of the WWGA Board, and other approved writers. Think of it like NextDoor or Facebook for our WWGA golf topics only. So, as a Board member writes something of interest to WWGA members, it is posted under Announcements. The most recent three are displayed on the Home Page, but all can be seen by clicking Announcements at the top of the page.

So, what does this mean for you? A couple of things:

- You have one place you can go to find all the unexpired announcements from the Board.
- You can comment on any of the Announcements – questions, complements, comments, and criticisms (rarely 😊).
- You can follow a post or an individual, so you can be alerted when there is an update or new post from the individual you want to follow, or a post you are particularly interested in.
- You can filter the Announcements to look at only ones in a specific category (e.g., General, Tournaments, Tuesday, Mason Dixon, The Woods, or Newsletters)

So, if you are interested in trying this out, just log into the WWGA website, click on an Announcement, and make a comment! If you want to get an email when a new Announcement is posted from an area you are interested in, then FOLLOW one of the following WWGA members:

- Cindy Gresham – for WWGA General Announcements
- Robin Kuhns – for Tuesday Ladies Golf and Newsletter Announcements
- Karen Schroder – for Weekend Tournament Announcements
- Joyce Davis – for WWGA Minutes and Match Play Announcements
- Liz Shaw – for WWGA Membership Update Announcements
- Sheila Joy – for Social Event Announcements
- Nancy Fairall – for Mason Dixon Announcements
- Mary Forte – for WWGA Website Announcements

NOTE: You must be a WWGA website member to be able to make a comment on the Announcements
